David B. Avison is an attorney, consultant and nonprofit executive. He limits his law practice to the representation of nonprofit entities, estate planning and estate administration. In the nonprofit world, David has been employed as a YMCA Executive Director, development director and as executive for a regional capital fund campaign. In addition, he is currently retained as Legal Counsel for his denomination's regional setting.

In his volunteer life, David has served his church on the local, regional and national levels. Other volunteer service includes neighborhood association, school district, Campfire Board, Boy Scouts, and his Alma Mater (Alumni Board President & Trustee). David is a retired naval officer (Commander); he served 24 years, active and reserve, with the U.S. Navy.

David holds a Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree from Willamette University College of Law, Salem, OR. In addition, he has earned Masters in Public Administration (M.P.A.) and Bachelor of Arts [History] (B.A.) degrees from Lewis and Clark College, Portland, OR. He is married to Jean, a bank vice president and they share four grown children, eight grandchildren and two spoiled Shiba Inu dogs. They reside in Lake Oswego, Oregon.
