Married Dave Lockard in 1969. Dave is a retired systems analyst for the State of Oregon and now enjoys woodworking. We have no children.

I spent 33 years in the banking industry and got the old toss in a merger in 1998. Since then, I have been enjoying photography and have several lines of photo note cards in select retail outlets and galleries in Oregon, Washington, and Hawaii. I have mentored several beginning photographers and have been a photography judge at the Oregon State Fair.

I volunteer at Historic Deepwood Estate in Salem as a gardener and also as a tour guide in the house.

For the past three years, I have been taking horse-back riding lessons in hunt seat and dressage. I had never before jumped a horse on purpose and I was bound and determined to learn how to do it before it was too late.

Dave and I spent many years boating in the lovely San Juan Islands of Washington State (anybody want to buy a boat?) We now enjoy spending winters in Hawaii where we like to golf. This picture of the two of us was taken at the Hualalai Resort on the Big Island of Hawaii.

The other picture is one I took of Dave playing a ukulele that he built. This picture now hangs in the Firehouse Gallery in Waimea, Hawaii.

Working on the 50th reunion committee has been a wonderful experience. The reunion will be a great opportunity for all of us to come back together after all this time. We made it fifty years! Let's celebrate!
