Life has been full and busy. I worked mostly as a teacher – Seattle and Richland, Washington and British Columbia. When I returned to Salem, I taught at Chemeketa, Court School, School for the Blind and finally spent 19 years at Salem-Keizer.

Since retiring in 2003, I have continued to paint but am primarily an assemblage artist.

Steve (my husband) and I make frequent trips to Seattle to see our daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. My early childhood training has been handy.

We also enjoy the coast, camping and hill walking. We hope to keep this “sweet spot” going.
