It is hard to believe that 50 years have gone past and I seem to have lost touch with everyone from Salem. I look forward to seeing how many of us can recognize each other.

I graduated with a BA from the University of Washington. I then spent a year in Vista in Baltimore and Hartford CN. Since then I have mostly lived in Washington State. I retired at the end of 2009 after 30 years with the Department of Corrections. When I retired I was Superintendent of a 400 bed facility just outside of Vancouver WA. Having moved all over the state from Connell to Clallam Bay for the job, I decided to settle here in Vancouver.

I am very much enjoying retirement. I walk with Volkswalk groups here in the area and also walk two or three half marathons a year. While never having become very good at identifying birds, I enjoy birding and volunteering at the Portland Audubon. Traveling has also become a passion. I have traveled to Ireland, Italy, France, Spain, Kenya, Quebec, Greece, Turkey, Germany, Amsterdam, Austria, the Czech Republic, Laos, Vietnam, and Cambodia.

Life is good.
